»»» Who We Are

St. Benedict Community Centre is a community based organization registered in Kenya by Ministry of Education and Gender and Social Services to support needy families within Dandora, Njiru District.

St. Benedict Community Centre offers primary education, Feeding program, spiritual nourishment and talent nurturing to less privileged children in Dandora some of who are rehabilitated from the dumpsite.

The Centre was founded by Diana Jomo in 2008. The Centre's catchment has a population whose income is below one dollar a day and hardly meets family needs.

Since then the Centre has intercepted to ensure that innocent and needy children from humble backgrounds access education and nutrition just like any other child in the republic of Kenya. The Centre has created job opportunities for the members of the society both directly and indirectly. Meals are provided in the Centre through the help of well-wishers.
